

A HARGIS CONSULTANT IS...

Intentional

A thoughtful and purposeful contributor toward client, individual, and team success

Adaptable

A constant learner who approaches industry challenges with flexibility

Investing

A person focused on collaborative growth in clients, colleagues, and company culture

“The type of work that this company does, and the amount of people and companies that we impact, it just kind of blew me away.”
2019 Hargis Intern

“At Hargis, I have been exposed to a wide variety of clients and project types. This diversity has given me the chance to enjoy new challenges with each project, capitalize on career growth opportunities, and really find job satisfaction.”
Hargis Electrical Engineer

“Hargis’ extremely responsive single-point project management, and the clear communication and coordination between the different engineering disciplines, truly sets them apart from other engineering firms.”
National Specialty Retailer Architect